Charlie Hover is a veteran litigator with deep roots in the state of Arizona. Having practiced law in Arizona for the past 32 years, he is adept at defending clients' most complicated issues and communicating his strategy in a business-oriented manner. For many businesses, his legal advice and strategic counsel are vital.

Clients of the firm rely on Charlie's experience in insurance defense, tort defense, product liability cases and medical device matters. Charlie understands the various challenges posed by each specific area of practice, and his experience provides clients an efficient, straight-forward assessment of their case details. Many of Charlie's clients say they value his down-to-earth style and calming presence through often tedious and stressful legal situations. AIG and the Insurance Corporation of British Columbia are among his cadre of satisfied clients.

Charlie learned a great deal about the legal system as a law clerk for two Court of Appeals judges early in his career. He received a law degree from the University of Puget Sound and a bachelor's degree from Arizona State University.
