Overview

Scott Conlon is an experienced trial lawyer with a long history of successfully representing clients across the state of Arizona. With nearly a decade defending 42 U.S.C. § 1983 cases, Scott understands the unique nuances of this area of law and is able to defend clients efficiently and successfully.

Scott has more than 15 years of experience defending clients in elevator manufacturing cases, including representation of one of the largest elevator/escalator manufacturers in the world. He has studied the effects technological advances have had in this industry, and how technology plays a role in clients' maintenance requirements. This experience and insight allows Scott to better understand his client's cases, and develop a comprehensive defense strategy.

Additionally, Scott has a successful history of representing insurance companies, restaurants, and transportation clients. His broad experience provides clients valuable insight and experience during trial, and reliable counsel which can help avoid trial altogether.
