Overview

With more than 33 years of legal experience in the insurance industry, Steve Mesaros is committed to leading the firm's insurance litigation teams in ways that deliver value to clients. A business executive as well as a seasoned litigator, Steve knows firsthand the challenges his clients face when running their business. He understands the importance of being practical, efficient, creative and results-oriented to achieve success for his clients and the firm.

A trial attorney who serves clients in the insurance industry, much of Steve's practice involves commercial litigation, professional liability and insurance coverage and bad faith litigation. He serves as chair for the firm's Professional Liability Litigation and Insurance Coverage and Bad Faith Litigation practice groups, and is relied upon by many of the nation's largest insurance companies for his abilities in the courtroom. Steve has experienced a great deal of success inside the courtroom during his career, including numerous multi-million dollar judgments earned on behalf of clients.

Under Steve's leadership in recent years, the firm has been nationally recognized in U.S. News & World Report as one of the "Best Law Firms" in the country and among the best product liability litigation firms in Phoenix.
