Overview

Kelly Hedberg's practice focuses on insurance coverage and bad faith litigation. Kelly also has experience defending corporations against claims involving personal injury, construction defect and other facets of commercial and business litigation. For companies of all sizes, Kelly has proven herself capable of developing and implementing defense strategies for everything from contract disputes to indemnity claims. Clients rely on her experienced guidance to cost-effectively defend their company.

Kelly's success has earned her recognition among Super Lawyers' Rising Stars every year since 2012. She frequently hosts client seminars and speaks at conferences to help equip her clients—and their employees—with practical strategies to reduce the risk of litigation. Best practices for handling and resolving litigation, assessing and addressing fraud in the claims environment, the current status of the indemnity provision in Arizona—these are just a few of the many areas in which Kelly's experience contributes to her clients' success.

As a member of the steering committee of ALFA International's Insurance Group, Kelly is uniquely connected to an international network of insurance professionals. In addition to successfully representing clients, Kelly takes an active role in her community. Wills for Heroes and HandsOn Greater Phoenix are among the organizations she supports.

Kelly earned a law degree from Cleveland State University and a bachelor's degree from Ohio State University. During her undergraduate studies, Kelly attended Semester at Sea, a multi-country study abroad program that circumnavigated the globe, stopping in countries such as Vietnam, India, Malaysia, Turkey and Morocco.
